

Confessions Regarding My Children And My Grandchildren

Father, I thank you in Jesus name, that my children are bless by You (Deut. 28.4) and that they are disciples, taught of the Lord and obedient to Your will and great is their peace and undisturbed composure (Isa. 54:18). I thank you that because they are part of my household, they are saved (Acts 16:31, Isa 49:25). I thank you Father that my children are a heritage from you (Ps. 127:3) and that you gave them to me (Heb. 2:15) and they will learn to trust and rely on you. I will train my children in the way they should go (Prov. 22:6) and when they are old they will not depart from it. Since Jesus is "The Way" I will teach them to walk, love, act, and speak as Jesus did. I will correct and discipline my children because I do love them. (Prov. 13:24. Prov. 22:15). I thank you that since all scripture is given by Your inspiration and is profitable for doctrine reproof, correction and instruction in righteousness, that the result of Your Word in my children's lives will produce men and women of God who are perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works (II Tim. 3:16-17). I thank you that I can take Your Word and Teach my children how to dress, live, eat, sleep and speak. I thank you that it also shows them how to have good sound emotions, perfect health, financial abundance, love for one another and love for You. I thank you that they will wax strong in Spirit and that they are filled with Your Wisdom and Grace (Luke 2:40). I thank you that they are not deceived and evil communication will not corrupt their good manners and that they awake to righteousness (I Cor. 15:33-34). I thank you that you pour Your Spirit upon my seed and Your blessing upon my offspring (Isa 44:3). I thank you that they overcome the evil one, that they are strong and the Word of God abides in them. I thank you that they love not the world or the things in the world; but they do your will and abide will and abide forever (I John 2:13-17). I thank you that they are kind, do not envy, behave themselves properly, do not seek their own way, but live, walk and act in the love of God (I Cor. 13: 4-7). I thank you that they abide under the shadow of the Almighty and trust in you. I thank you that no evil befalls them and that YOU give Your angels charge over them and deliver them (Ps 91. Ps 34:7). I thank you that they come to the knowledge that you have delivered them from the power and authority of darkness (Col. 1;13. Ps. 23). I thank you, Father, that I can rest in Your ability to protect, guard and care for my children for you are our Caretaker (I Peter 5:6-7). I thank you that in Jesus Name, I can enter into Your rest (Heb. 4:9). I can lie down in peace and sleep for you take care of all that concerns me and my family. Psalms 2.

We walk in righteousness and purity and are blessed with the Spirit of God. No weapon formed against us shall prosper for greater is HE who is in us than he who is in this world. We are blood bought, born again children of God. And joint heirs with Jesus Christ.

Now pray the 23rd Psalm and the Lord's Prayer.
